

Ethnic Dance Adjudicator

Dan Costain

Mr. Costain is a 45 year veteran of stage. His talent as a singer, dancer, actor and comedian has been hailed by producers and directors across Canada. He has performed in principal roles such as Le Fou in Beauty and the Beast, Rosco Dexter in Singing in the Rain, Rooster in Annie, Horace Vandergelder in Hello Dolly, Mr. Phillips in Anne of Green Gables, Harry the Horse in Guys and Dolls, and Romeo in Romeo and Juliet. Other roles include Piaff, Creeps, El Grande de Coca Cola, Jacques Brel is Alive, Well and Living in Paris, Puttin' on the Ritz and many more. Mr. Costain is the consummate thespian and theatre gypsy at the same time. He toured Quebec with Les Feux Fallet and he is a former US Highland dancing champion. His exquisite Scottish baritone voice, his sense of timing and his flair for comedy are a force to be reckoned with. Beyond his abilities as an entertainer, Mr. Costain is also a professional theatre technician and a member of I.A.T.S.E. He has worked on all facets of productions from stage management to stagehand and Crew Chief.
