

Musical Theatre Adjudicator

---

Rebecca Hass

Rebecca Hass has enjoyed a rich and varied musical career, performing on stages across Canada with Canadian opera companies, symphony orchestra's and theatre companies. She is currently on staff at the Canadian College of the Performing Arts in Victoria B.C working with triple threat students on the craft of acting a song. In recent years, she has been in demand as a clinician giving Master Classes for Opera Nuova, St. Andrews Opera Workshop, The Victoria Conservatory of Music and Edmonton and Calgary Opera and the University of Toronto, Ottawa, British Columbia and Victoria. Rebecca is also a Certified Life Coach and travels across the country working with performers in the art of making a living and a life as a performer and coaches the Canadian Opera Company Ensemble.

Sought after as an adjudicator due to her diverse experience, skill in pedagogy and passion for story-telling, Rebecca has adjudicated classical and music theatre classes for the Calgary, Lethbridge, Cowichan and Orillia Music Festival and the Victoria Conservatory of Music. Rebecca graduated from Wilfrid Laurier University with an Honors Bachelor of Music with a major in Vocal Performance. You can learn more at www.rebeccahass.ca

Highlights Concert May 5, 2018
Vocal Highlights Concert
Phillip T. Young Recital Hall, 7 PM
MacLaurin Building, University of Victoria