Joanne Pesusich

Joanne's dance career has led her all over the world as both a choreographer and a dancer. Originally from Melbourne, Australia, Joanne has also lived and trained in Vancouver, New York and Los Angeles. Joanne has performed with artists The Backstreet Boys, The Artist Formerly Known as Prince, Kool & the Gang and Alanis Morissette. Joanne was seen on the NAACP Image Awards as a performer and assistant choreographer for "A Tribute to George Clinton", performing with rap artists Busta Rhymes, Lauryn Hill, The Fugees, and rock band The Red Hot Chili Peppers. Joanne was nominated 'Best Female Hip Hop Dancer' at the prestigious RAD (Recognition Awards for Dancers) Awards in Los Angeles. Joanne was the assistant choreographer on the feature film TRON 2, and together with her husband Alex she choreographed the Finale for the "So You Think You Can Dance" Canadian Season 2 Tour. Currently, Joanne is director of The Source Dance Company, a semi-professional dance company based out of Harbour Dance Centre in Vancouver, BC (www.sourcedancecompany.com). Joanne is also the Co-Founder of Groove Street Productions, the company which hosts GSP The Dance Convention, and Street Groove The Hip Hop Convention, and tours across Canada together with her husband Alex to teach and inspire young Canadian dancers.
