

Darlene Sheldon – Member at Large (Awards Portfolio)

Darlene Sheldon is currently retired after a variety of careers in the technology and petroleum industries. The last decade of her professional life involved creating, growing and divesting software corporations. Darlene's strengths are in small business management, marketing and finance. Darlene has two daughters who have performed for many years in the Speech and Dramatic Arts and Dance sections of GVPAF.