

Speech and Dramatic Arts Adjudicator

Jonathan Love

Jonathan has played many roles. He is a columnist for the Calgary Eyeopener on CBC Radio One, a community arts ambassador and a marketing strategist for the Taylor Centre for the Performing Arts. In addition to voicing and producing videos, commercials and cartoons with his company ToonVox Media, he performs regularly with the Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra and Edmonton Symphony Orchestra. On-screen, he has worked with visionaries like Ang Lee (Brokeback Mountain) and Kevin Costner (Open Range) and has appeared in many television productions. As a keynote speaker, he has enjoyed engaging diverse audiences ranging from institutional planners and arts leaders to nonprofit executives and project managers. He is co-founder of a very successful marriage to legacy lululemon ambassador Kate Love. They have co-produced two amazingly entertaining children. He has also enjoyed 25 years of singing songs for people as a founding member of Calgary's comic a cappella group, the Heebie-jeebies. Jonathan is pleased to be returning to the Greater Victoria Performing Arts Festival.
