

Melanie Johnson-Jagiello

– Member at Large

Melanie Jagiello has a bachelor's degree in History from the University of Alberta as well as graduate work towards a Masters in French History. She has worked with the TELUS Communications Company for the past 17 years in a series of progressive roles supporting some of TELUS' largest public and private sector customers; in her present role she is responsible for running strategic business programs. Having recently moved to Victoria, she is excited to be part of the Victoria community. In her spare time, she enjoys playing piano, travelling and exploring Vancouver Island with her family.