- Age restrictions are as of December 31, 2017. Maximum age for candidates to National and Provincial Festival classes is 28 years.

2. PREPARATION

- Participants are advised to free their time (and that of their accompanists) during their section dates to avoid conflicting activities.
- It is the responsibility of singers, accompanists and teachers to read the Program when it is available in order to identify possible conflicts with other Sections or events. Contact the Section Head with specific information about a conflict so that it may be resolved in a manner that is fair to all participants. The details of all such conflicts must be reported before the first Classical Voice Section class begins on April 17, 2018. No changes will be made subsequently.
- The Section Heads cannot advise participants of their exact performing times.
- Participants must not perform the same selection in more than one class in the Classical Voice Section or in any other section.
- Piano accompaniment only is permitted in all Classical Voice classes unless otherwise stipulated.
- NO POP MUSIC in any category.
- NO MUSICAL THEATRE in any Classical class and no oratorio in Junior and Intermediate Sacred classes.
- ART SONG – is defined as a piece that was not originally a choral piece, and no stage performance (gestures, walking, dancing) is permitted in art songs.
- SPIRITUALS – are defined as songs indigenous to the US of Africans transported as slaves; the songs are the interaction of African religious elements with music and religion from Europe. Although primarily an expression of religious faith, they also served as social protests.
- Adjudicator score:
 - Must be an original score or a legal download
 - Label with:
 - Participant name
 - Class name
 - Any applicable key change
 - Number bar lines
 - Remove teacher markings

3. AT THE VENUE

- No perfumes/scents are permitted in any sessions.
- Warm-up space is limited. Please warm up at home before you arrive for your class. If you must use the warm-up space, please use it fairly so that everyone has an opportunity. Rehearsals with accompanists are not permitted in the warm-up space.
- Each participant is required to submit an original score of the music selection(s) to the Adjudicator's Secretary before performing. The accompanist is also required to have originals of the music present at the venue.

- Participants are expected to be on-site 10 to 15 minutes before their scheduled classes commence.
- Please review the Code of Conduct as all participants are expected to adhere strictly to this code.
- Before handing music to the Adjudicator's secretary, please ensure that music is clearly marked at the correct page and is labeled with the participant's name, class number, participant number and title of piece. Bars should be numbered and key changes must be clearly indicated.

4. PERFORMANCE

- Please strictly adhere to time limits in noted classes to avoid disqualification.

5. ADJUDICATION

- Each participant will receive a written and verbal adjudication. No placement or participation certificates will be given.
- Participants are responsible for picking up their music immediately after the class has been adjudicated.

6. AWARDS

- Junior and Intermediate participants must have performed in a minimum of two Classical Voice solo classes.
- Senior level A participants must have performed in a minimum of three Classical Voice solo classes.
- Participants in the Adult classes perform for adjudication only and are ineligible for awards or recommendation to the Provincial Festival.

7. VOCAL HIGHLIGHTS CONCERT – SATURDAY, MAY 5, 2018

- Performers in the Highlights Concert are those performers in Musical Theatre and Classical Voice sections who, in the opinion of the Adjudicators, have achieved a distinguished record throughout the Festival. All performers are selected by the Adjudicators.
- Candidates for the following awards are expected to be available to sing at the Highlights Concert:
Tom Lee Music Trophy and Award - most outstanding Junior singer and nominee for Junior Class representative at the Provincial Festival
Tom Lee Music Trophy and Award - most outstanding Intermediate singer and nominee for Intermediate Class representative at the Provincial Festival
Norma Douglas Memorial Scholarship Award – runner- up Senior A singer and nominee for Senior Class representative at the Provincial Festival
Ethel James/Rose Bowl Award - most outstanding Senior A singer and nominee for National Class representative at the Provincial Festival

8. PROVINCIAL FESTIVAL AND NATIONAL LEVEL CLASSES AT THE PROVINCIAL FESTIVAL

- The regulations for the Provincial Festival are online at www.bcprovincials.com. It is the responsibility of each participant to ensure that he or she meets eligibility criteria for nomination as a Provincial Festival representative.
- Previous Rose Bowl winners who wish to be considered for Provincial or National representation may only enter Level A Performance Class.
- Participants to represent the local Festival at the Provincial Festival at all levels will be chosen by the Adjudicators and will be advised. Their names will also be announced at the Highlights Concert. The Adjudicators will consider number of classes entered, display of knowledge of various styles of music and standard of accomplishment when making recommendations.
- To be eligible for nomination to Senior Provincial or National classes, one aria from opera or a major sacred work (including recitative where appropriate) must be performed at local Festival level. Note that the singer chosen as National Class representative must sing an opera aria, an aria from a major sacred work and at least three movements from a multi-movement/song cycle at the Provincial Festival. For complete rules, please consult the Provincial and National Festival syllabi on their respective websites.
- Candidates to represent the local Festival at the Provincial or National Festivals are expected to be available to sing at the Highlights Concert and, if chosen, participate in the Provincial Festival.
- Vocal Variety: Candidates to the Provincial Festival may have an option to enter parallel voice classes in Vocal Variety. At publication date of this Syllabus, the updated Provincial Syllabus has not yet been finalized. Candidates to the Provincial Festival who wish to enter Vocal Variety classes should consult the Provincial Festival website (www.performingartsbc.ca) or contact the Provincial Festival Office (festival@bcprovincials.com) to confirm permitted selections.

VOICE - MUSICAL THEATRE

A MUSICAL THEATRE WORK is defined as a musical stage-play/production or motion-picture musical having a plot developed by dialogue interspersed with songs and often containing dances. The Broadway Musical is representative of this genre. Selections from light opera, operetta, Gilbert & Sullivan, Lehar, Romberg, Johann Strauss, Offenbach, Friml, revues, cabarets, encore/revue pieces and similar works ARE PERMITTED ONLY IN VOCAL VARIETY CLASS. Selections from animated musical productions are acceptable at the Junior level only. Performers may register, perform and receive adjudication in Vocal Variety classes at the local level to prepare for the optional parallel Vocal Variety classes at the Provincial Festival. (See details below).

The Section Head for Musical Theatre is Joan Russell (joan.russell@mcgill.ca). The Section Head should be contacted for details of requirements for classes in each Section.

Dates for the Musical Theatre section are:

Sessions: April 11, 12 and 13, 2018, St. Luke's Church, 3821 Cedar Hill Cross Road

Vocal Highlights Concert (Musical Theatre and Classical Voice): – May 5, Phillip T. Young Recital Hall, UVIC

Notes to all Musical Theatre Participants

1. ENTRY

- Song title, name of show, composer's name and accompanist's name MUST be indicated. These are mandatory fields on the registration form. "TBA" or similar text in the song title field is not acceptable.
- If a song title must be changed after registration, notify the section head immediately.
- In ensemble classes, participants must enter the category of the most senior participant.
- Age restrictions are as of December 31, 2017. Maximum age for candidates to National and Provincial Festival classes is 28 years.
- DEFINITIONS:
 - Up-Tempo is used to describe music with a lively tempo and is often comedic.
 - Ballad is used to describe music with a slower tempo, often of a serious or introspective nature.
- Requirements for classes are displayed under each Section. For additional information, contact the section head.

2. PREPARATION

- Simple costumes are permitted.
- One hand-held prop only may be used (in addition to a single chair which will be provided) and must be set up and struck by the performer. NOTE: Any piece of apparel, ornament or item that is part of a costume, but is removed or used during a performance, is considered an additional prop, as are props that are made up of multiple parts (i.e. A basket of laundry) unless these parts are attached and the parts are not used separately during the performance.
- Memorization is mandatory.
- Staging is encouraged. No dance 'breaks' are permitted.
- Participants must provide a verbal introduction of their selections to "set the scene" as they begin their performance. Participants are to introduce themselves, state the title of their selection and name the show. If necessary to set the stage, keep it brief, describing what is happening at that time in the show. Other remarks, thank yous, mention of parent, teacher, choreographer, etc are NOT permitted.
- With the exception of appropriate musical and non-verbal communication during a performance, any additional interaction between an accompanist or other individual or performer after the introduction of the selection is considered to be a duet.
- Participants are advised to free their time (and that of their accompanists) during their section dates to avoid conflicting activities. If you know of a conflict with the session days at the time of registration please put a note on your registration form to alert the Section Heads. They will do their best to accommodate.
- It is the responsibility of singers, accompanists and teachers to read the Program when it is available, in order to identify possible conflicts with other Sections or events. Contact the Section Head with specific information about a conflict as soon as email notice of performance times have been received so that it may be resolved in a manner that is fair to all participants. .

- The Section Head cannot advise participants of their exact performing times. See the program for the list of participants and order of presentations.
- Participants must not perform the same selection in more than one class in Musical Theatre.
- Piano accompaniment only is permitted in all Musical Theatre classes unless otherwise stipulated.
- All teacher markings should be removed from music. Note that at National level the original key must be used.
- Music or books should be labelled with participant's name and class number.

3. AT THE VENUE

- No perfumes/scents are permitted in any sessions.
- Warm-up space is limited. Please warm up at home before you arrive for your class. If you must use the warm-up space, please use it fairly so that everyone has an opportunity. Rehearsals with accompanists are not permitted in the warm-up space.
- Each participant is required to submit an original score of the music selection(s) to the Adjudicator's Secretary before performing. The accompanist is also required to have originals of the music present at the venue.
- Participants are expected to be on-site 10 to 15 minutes before their scheduled classes commence.
- Please review the Code of Conduct as all participants are expected to adhere strictly to this code.
- Before handing music to the Adjudicator's secretary, please ensure that all teacher markings are removed from the music, that the score is clearly marked at the correct page and is labeled with the participant's name, class number, participant number and title of piece. The first bar of each line should be numbered and key changes, where allowed, must be clearly indicated.

4. PERFORMANCE

- Please adhere strictly to time limits in noted classes to avoid disqualification.

5. ADJUDICATION

- Each participant will receive a written and verbal adjudication. No placement or participation certificates will be given. Note that adjudicators' decisions are final.
- Participants are responsible for picking up their music immediately after the class has been adjudicated.

6. AWARDS

- Junior and Intermediate participants must have performed in a minimum of two Musical Theatre solo classes including one Up-Tempo and one Ballad.
- Senior participants must have performed in a minimum of three Musical Theatre solo classes including Up-Tempo and Ballad and one selection from the Musical Theatre standard repertoire. (See below for definition of standard repertoire)

7. PROVINCIAL FESTIVAL AND NATIONAL LEVEL CLASSES AT THE PROVINCIAL FESTIVAL:

- Musical Theatre is a provincial category. In order to be considered as a candidate for the Provincial Festival, you must enter both Up-Tempo and Ballad solo classes. Repertoire may be from the same or different productions.
- Both selections will be performed back to back and must be simply costumed and include only one hand-held prop the performer can manage alone.
- The Provincial 'National' class for Musical Theatre requires the performance of three songs. Consult the Provincial Festival website and Syllabus for full details.
- Vocal Variety: Candidates to the Provincial Festival may have an option to enter parallel voice classes in Vocal Variety and should consult the Provincial Festival website (www.performingartsbc.ca) or contact the Provincial Festival Office (festival@bcprovincials.com) to confirm permitted selections.
