

Don Hlus – Guitarist | Music Educator | Career Coach

Don Hlus was a member of the music faculty at Kwantlen Polytechnic University (KPU) for 26 years. He served as Department Chair for six of those years. In addition to working with students in studio lessons, coaching chamber ensembles, and teaching fretboard harmony, he also taught courses on the Music Industry, History of Popular Music, the Business of Music, and Career Development & Entrepreneurship. In 2019, Don retired from the university and established the Fort Langley Guitar Studio where he is thrilled to work with talented young musicians and guitar enthusiasts in advancing their craft, whether that be musically or professionally. For more information about Don and his professional activities, please visit: <https://donhlusmusic.com>